EXERCISE – 12

Question

Execute and display the results of the following Port Scanning commands in Kali Linux Operating System:

1. Basic Port Scan
2. Specific Port Scan
3. All Ports Scan

Aim

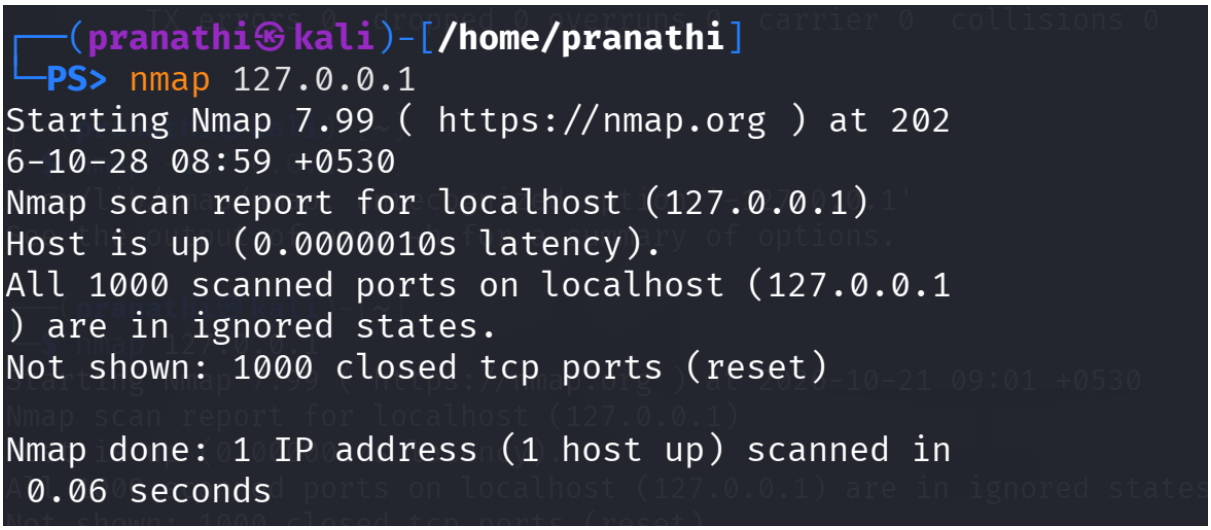

To execute and display the results of port scanning commands using Nmap in Kali Linux.

1. BASIC PORT SCAN

Command:

nmap 127.0.0.1

Output:

Use:

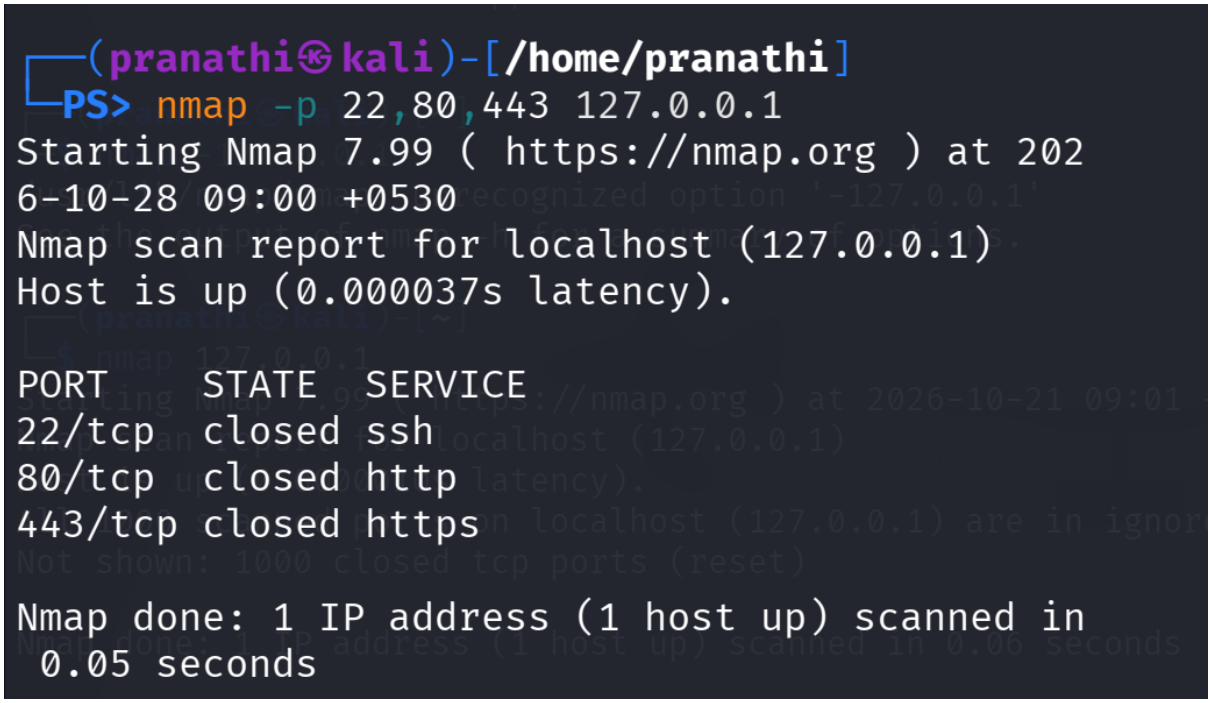

The nmap command is used to scan the common ports of the target system and identify open or closed ports.

2. SPECIFIC PORT SCAN

Command:

nmap -p 22,80,443 127.0.0.1

Output :

Use:

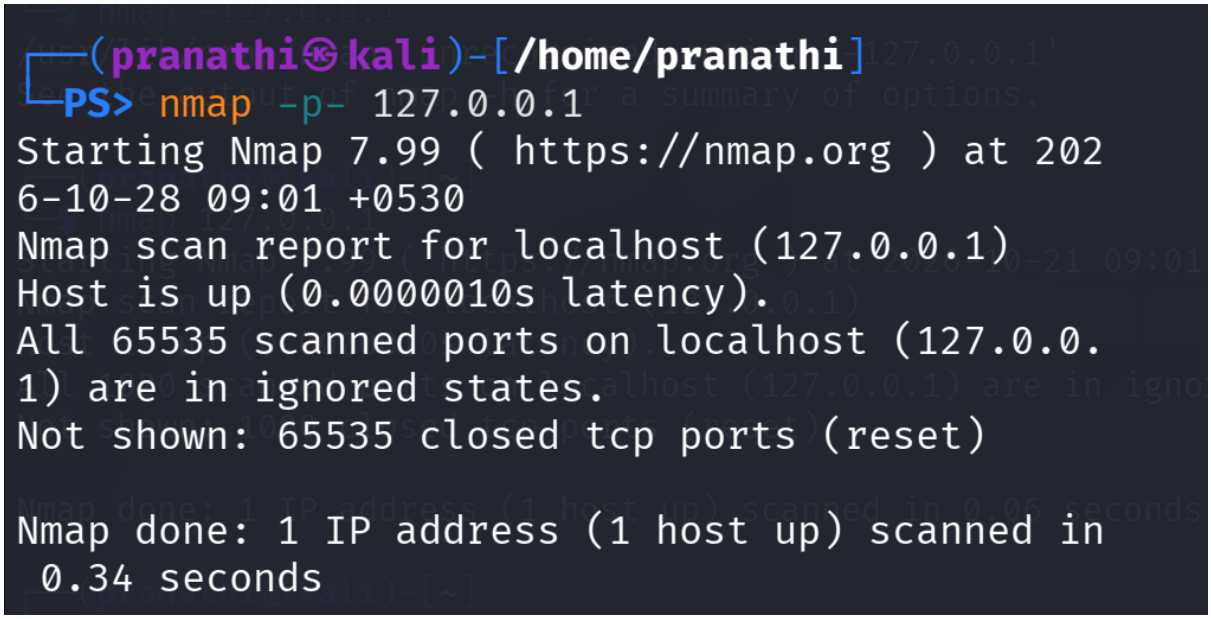

The -p option is used to scan specific ports and identify their status on the target system.

3. ALL PORTS SCAN

Command:

nmap -p- 127.0.0.1

Output :

Use:

The -p- option is used to scan all 65,535 TCP ports of the target system.